

Open Consultations

John Curran

ARIN Consultation and Suggestion Process (ACSP)

- Provides a formal mechanism for the community to suggest changes or additions or suspension of ARIN services or practices.
- When appropriate, ARIN will announce a consultation in which community feedback about ARIN services or practices is sought
<https://www.arin.net/participate/acsp/index.html>

3 Open Consultations

- Changes to ARIN resource revocation procedures
- Changes to ARIN RSS feed
- Retiring ARIN e-mail templates

Changes to ARIN Resource Revocation Procedures

- Consultation focuses on whether ARIN should reduce the amount of time an organization has to pay overdue fees to six months, at which point, if no payment has been made, the resources would be permanently revoked (currently allow 12 months to pay)

https://www.arin.net/participate/acsp/community_consult10-5-2009_resource_revocation.html

Changes to ARIN RSS feed

- Consultation focuses on :
 - Whether ARIN should add the daily recovered address space to the RSS feed
 - Whether ARIN should enhance the current RSS feed format and associated report by making it available in an XML format.

https://www.arin.net/participate/acsp/community_consult/10-6-2009_rss_feed.html

Retiring ARIN E-mail Templates

- Consultation focuses on when and if ARIN should retire e-mail templates as duplicate functionality is made available through ARIN Online.

https://www.arin.net/participate/acsp/community_consult/10-6-2009_rss_feed.html

